

MARCH 3

Winning the hidden battles of the heart is the journey to intimacy with Jesus.

“Come now, and let us reason together,”
says the Lord, “Though your sins are like scarlet,
they shall be as white as snow; Though they are red like crimson, they shall be as wool.” Isaiah 1:18

And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb
and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death. Revelation 12:11

“There is power, power, wonder working power
In the blood of the Lamb.” - Lewis E Jones

Hidden Battles

“And they overcame him by the blood of the lamb and the word of their testimony...” - Rev 12:11

All of us struggle to overcome sin and temptation. It is common to all. Although the pathway to winning the hidden battle of the heart involves things like, repentance, confession, accountability, the prayer of agreement, discipline and self-denial, there is a weapon in our warfare that is the deciding factor: the blood of the Lamb.

The way to win the hidden battles of the heart is found in the intimate presence of God. Only in His presence are we changed and become strengthened through His grace to gain a sustaining victory over habitual sins. The blood of the Lamb has made an entrance for us to come into the presence of God. We come with our sin and weakness and find forgiveness, and His enabling power to help in time of need. The blood gives you instant access to the throne of grace and that is where the battle is won.
